Remembering Nana At Christmas
 Christmas comes again, dear Nana
 It hurts since you passed away;
 The empty chair you left us with
 Will grace your presence here today.
 We'll bow our heads in silent prayer;
 Our hearts are filled with pride;
 To know that God has chosen you
 To live there by His side.
 So now we'll try to be content
 We know that you're at rest;
 For God works only for our good
 And does things for the best.

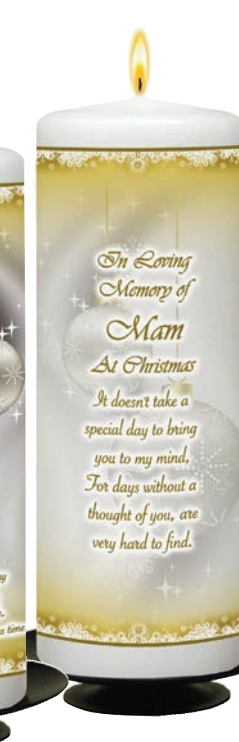

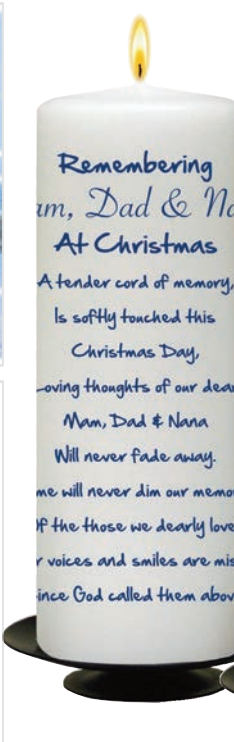

Remembering Mam & Dad At Christmas
 Who mended all the things I tore,
 Who made me scrub my ears;
 Who smiled when I was happy,
 And who kissed away my tears?
 I am sure you know,
 dear Mam & Dad
 That it's you both, I'm thinking of;
 This brings to you my Christmas thoughts
 And all my year-'round love.

Remembering Mam, Dad & Nana At Christmas
 A tender cord of memory,
 Is softly touched this Christmas Day,
 Loving thoughts of our dear
 Mam, Dad & Nana
 Will never fade away.
 We will never dim our memory
 Of the those we dearly love,
 For their voices and smiles are missing since God called them above.

In Loving Memory of Mam At Christmas
 It doesn't take a special day to bring you to my mind,
 For days without a thought of you, are very hard to find.
